

Holy Trinity
Headington Quarry

Imaging Faith

a Lenten journey through 2,000 years of Christian art

Thursdays, 7.30pm

The Coach House,
46 Quarry Road, Oxford, OX3 8NU

Each evening begins with a 30 minute talk followed by refreshments, discussion and a closing time of prayer. No booking required.

26 February	Art and the God we can't see	The Revd Martin Little, Vicar of Holy Trinity, Headington Quarry
5th March	Does an icon break the second commandment?	Mandy Patterson, Christian artist and icon writer
12 March	Hidden and in plain sight: Vermeer and Rembrandt painting the Passion	The Revd Prof Rob Gilbert, Associate Priest and Professor of Biophysics, University of Oxford
19 March	Looking back and Looking ahead with the Pre-Raphaelites	Dr Imogen Hart, Lecturer in History of Art, Oxford Brookes University
26 March	The Cosmic Cross: faith and modernity	The Revd Martin Little Vicar of Holy Trinity, Headington Quarry

hthq.uk

facebook.com/holytrinityheadingtonquarry