Ever wondered what becomes of your rubbish? That food waste is turned into electricity to power 4,200 homes, and liquid fertilizer for 2,500 acres of farmland? That green bin rubbish, formerly 'landfill' generates electricity for 38,000 homes and creates aggregate in pellet form for the construction industry? Why not sign up for a free tour of the Food Waste Plant at Cassington (23 July 2019, 19 September 2019, 18 March 2020; Energy Recovery Facility at Ardley (30 October 2019,16 January 2020. 19th May – 2-6pm Headington NGS Open Gardens Adult £6

Headington is an old village with high stone walls, narrow lanes and a Norman church. The 9 gardens offer wide variety. 40 Osler Road is a well-established garden with an Italian theme brimming with exotic planting. White Lodge provides a large park-like setting for a Regency property. The Coach House combines a formal setting with hedges, flowers and lawn and a courtyard with a water garden. 9 Stoke Place has a traditional lawn and mixed border on one side and a formal garden on the other. The walled vegetable garden in the grounds of Ruskin College incorporates a Grade II listed Crinkle Crankle Wall. Monckton Cottage is a walled, woodland garden with a meadow area, topiary, and unusual plants. 7 St Andrews Road is a small town garden with mixed borders and a unique water feature. No 10 Kennett Road is a well-planned small garden with lawns and borders, a pond, a fernery and greenhouse. 11 Beech Road is a recently planted garden in its third full season

Pastoral care team. Are you in need of support or would you like to talk to someone? We rely on you to let us know of anyone who is ill, or in hospital or who might welcome a visit. Please ☎ Anne Tarassenko 351739 or Deirdre Twycross 764197 or any of the clergy (numbers on the back of this notice-sheet).

THIS WEEK

Congregational Evensong is on tonight at 6pm. Do join us to enjoy this Bible based service which gives us the opportunity to listen to scripture, join in psalms and canticles and pray in an unhurried traditional framework. It's the perfect way to start the week using the beautiful language of the Book of Common Prayer and a chance for quiet contemplation and reflection.

Contemplative Eucharist is on next Sunday 5th May at 6pm. A reminder that on every first Sunday of the month, there will be a quieter Eucharist in church with Taize music, readings, time for reflection and informal communion.

NEW NOTICES

The flowers in church today have been kindly given by Sandra Bailey who is celebrating her 70th birthday.

Sandra Bailey is 70 tomorrow. Please come to the Coach House today to celebrate with her. There will be cake.
